

what Water Ekiden projects carry to the future -- 01
warnings in hands scooped up by water senders

75 percent of people all over the world are supplied only with no more than 50 liters of 'water' a day. We need at least 80 liters of 'water' a day to live our ordinary life.

The diseases related to 'water' are supposed to cause one child to die every 8 seconds.

As a result of the increase of the world population, demands of 'water' in 2025 will reach to 1.4 times as much as nowadays.

80 percent of the diseases in developing countries are still caused by contaminated water.

Since mid-20 century, the amount of water consumed has increased 3 times.

50 percent of the world population live in their hard environment without maintained sewage treatment plant.

Under present world, more than three hundreds million people in 26 countries are distressed by insufficient supplies of 'water'.

Because of water pollution, 20 percent of species of fresh water fish are nearly to the point of extinction.

plan for the Groundworks Exhibition presented by Ichi Ikeda